NARRATOR:
 This early rejection in Nazareth
 notwithstanding,
 Jesus went about all Galilee,
 teaching in the synagogues,
 preaching the gospel of the Kingdom of God,
 and healing all manner of sickness
 and disease.

[And there followed him as well
 great crowds of people
 from Jerusalem, Judaea, Decapolis and Transjordan.]

And his fame spread far and wide.

NARRATOR: (CV omit []s as always)
 And from the many disciples who followed him,
 he chose Twelve, whom he also called Apostles:
 Simon Peter and Andrew,
 James and John,
 Philip and Bartholomew,
 Matthew and Thomas,
 and four others, including Judas Iscariot,
 who later betrayed him.

And as he visited every city and village,
 proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom
 and healing many who were sick,
 the Twelve accompanied him,
 as did certain women who had been healed
 of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary Magdalene and many others.

And he sent out his disciples as well, in pairs,
 to teach and to heal [, telling them:
 "Take nothing with you, only a stick and sandals.
 no bread, no pack, no money, no second coat."]
